DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: 1.) The species of figs. 1-3H; 2.) The species of fig. 4; and 3.) The species of fig. 5.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 2 and 7-18 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Stemer on October 20, 2004 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of the species of figs. 1-3H, claims 1, 2, 4, 5 and 7-18. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 3 and 6 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claims 9 and 16 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 9, lines 3 and 4, it is not clear what is meant by a "clockwise-locking lock" and a "counterclockwise-locking lock". Appropriate correction is required.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7-11 and 13-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the German reference (998).

The German reference (998) teaches a key for indicating the closure state of a lock, as set forth on page 4 of the instant application, including at least one cylindrical tube mounted to a housing on a key and filled with electrically conductive fluid to actuate switches and cooperate with an electronic evaluation unit to determine the closure state of the lock. With respect to claim 5, the cylindrical shape of the tube defines circular arc sections. The key includes an activation switch defined by the "mechanical activation apparatus" as set forth on page 5, line 3 of the instant application. Figure 1 of the German reference (998) also discloses a display 102 and an indicator 7, 8.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the German reference (998) in view of Sonderegger et al.

Sonderegger teaches an acoustic signal transmitter defined by the loudspeaker as set forth in column 6, line 44. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide an acoustic transmitter with the key of the German reference (998), in view of the teaching of Sonderegger et al, the motivation being to audibly alert one of a condition of the lock.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
